

JOIN COMMON SENSE MEDIA FOR

The Impact of Media on the Health & Well-Being of Children

A symposium addressing the cognitive, social, & emotional impact of media on children's lives.

May 10, 2012 • Cannon Caucus Room

8:30 am Check in • 9 am–12 pm Symposium

345 Cannon House Building, Capitol Hill, Washington, D.C.

PROGRAM

Welcome & Opening Remarks

April McClain Delaney, Board member and Washington Director, Common Sense Media

James P. Steyer, CEO and Founder, Common Sense Media

The Honorable Edward J. Markey (D-MA)

Panel I – PRIVACY AND SOCIAL NETWORKING

MODERATED BY James P. Steyer

The Honorable Jon Leibowitz, Chairman, Federal Trade Commission

The Honorable Richard Blumenthal (D-CT)

Remarks: The Honorable Debbie Wasserman Schultz (D-FL)

Interview Session – THE IMPORTANCE OF RESEARCH

MODERATED BY Dee Dee Myers, Managing Director, Public Affairs, The Glover Park Group, former Press Secretary for President Clinton

Vicky Rideout, President, VJR Consulting and Senior Adviser, Common Sense Media

Ellen Wartella, Professor, Communications Studies, Northwestern University

Panel II – HEALTHY MEDIA IMAGES FOR GIRLS

MODERATED BY The Honorable Deborah Taylor Tate, former FCC Commissioner, Co-Chair (along with Geena Davis) of the Healthy MEdia Commission

The Honorable Mignon Clyburn, Commissioner, Federal Communications Commission

Amy Zuccherro, Campaign Director for MissRepresentation.org

Closing Remarks

RSVP: <http://kidsandmedia.eventbrite.com> or 703-309-3279

This symposium highlights the umbrella of education, health and awareness issues raised in the context of kids' use of digital media.

We hope you will join us for these informative dialogues.