Way too much sodium, and too many unhealthy fats and added sugars.

Too much refined and processed grain, and not enough whole grain.

Fruits and vegetables supplied in amounts far below recommendations.

Dairy supplied at roughly half the recommended level.

Plenty of total protein, but not enough from plant and fish sources.

(This line represents the ideal amount provided by the food supply.)